

Please read on for some information on your accommodation and facilities.

Participants of further education on judiciary matters will primarily be accommodated in block 5. There are 112 single rooms, featuring modern furnishing (toilet, shower, TV), a TV room (which will include an Internet terminal from August 2013) and a kitchenette (with an additional TV set). For those arriving with heavy luggage, there is a lift at your disposal.

Bed linen and towels are provided once during your stay.

Guests with the need for barrier-free access are requested to contact the Training and Further Education Centre administration prior to the event +49(0) 3375 — 672 0.

The use of the Internet via WLAN is possible on our grounds. For more information on the use of telephone and Internet services, please ask at reception upon arrival.
